THE LAW DEPARTMENT.

FACULTY.

FRANCIS PRESTON VENABLE, Ph.D., President.

JAMES CAMERON MacRAE, LL.D., Dean and Professor of Common and Statute Law and Equity.

THOMAS RUFFIN, D.C.L., Associate Professor of Law and Equity.

KEMP PLUMMER BATTLE, LL.D., Professor of Constitutional History and International Law.

CHARLES LEE RAPER, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Economics and of History.

CHARLES STAPLES MANGUM, A.B., M.D., Lecturer on Medico-Legal Jurisprudence.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

The Law Department provides three courses of study, each extending over a period of one College year. Instruction is given by means of text-books, the study of leading cases, and moot courts. Special lectures are given by resident instructors and by members of the bar upon subjects of interest to students.

Professor MacRae and Associate Professor Ruffin.

1. Elementary course in first principles and plain rules of business, contract and property law. Robinson's Elementary Law. Spencer's Commercial Law. Three hours a week.

   Elective for Juniors and Seniors in all Academic courses. This Course affords a preliminary study for those intending to enter the regular law class after graduation, and also an opportunity to learn principles and forms applicable to commercial and other business life. It will be of great service to young men about to enter into any business.

FIRST YEAR.

2. Ewell's Essentials. This Course covers the four books of Blackstone, embracing the subjects of Domestic Relations, (Manning's Commentaries,) Real and Personal Property Law, Pleading and Practice and Criminal Law, Clark on Contracts, Bigelow on Torts.

3. Greenleaf on Evidence, with the Code Chapter on Evidence. Bispham's Equity. Clark on Corporations. Schouler on Executors, with the Code chapters on Widows, Wills and Testaments. Descent and Executors and Administrators. The Code of North Carolina, including Clark's Code of Civil Procedure. The Constitution of the United States and of North Carolina. Sharswood's Legal Ethics.

Courses 2 and 3 include the work prescribed by the Supreme Court of North Carolina to be done by candidates for license to practice law, and is subject to such changes as may become necessary by reason of changes made by the Supreme Court.

SECOND YEAR.

4. Lawson on Bailments. Norton on Notes and Bills. Dillon on Municipal Corporations. Burdick on Sales. Huffcut on Agency. Richards on Insurance. Clark's Criminal Law. Black's Constitutional Law. Lectures. Theses.

Other text-books covering the same ground may be substituted for those named.

Professor BATTLE.

5. Constitutional History and International Law.

Associate Professor RAPER.

6. Economics 1 and 2.

Professor MANGUM.

7. Medico-legal Jurisprudence. One hour a week.

Courses 4, 5 and 6 are required of all candidates for the degree of LL.B.

EXAMINATIONS.

Thorough written examinations are held regularly throughout the year on the completion of each subject. A certificate is granted to students who pass with credit on all subjects embraced in Courses 2 and 3. Those who receive this certificate are considered ready to appear before the Supreme Court for examination.

SPECIAL LECTURES.

From time to time during the term, lectures will be delivered before the school by eminent judges and lawyers.

THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) is conferred by the University upon candidates who have completed Courses 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, and have passed all examinations with credit. Two years of residence are ordinarily required of all students who desire to offer themselves as candidates for the degree. Every candidate must submit a thesis on some subject selected by the senior Professor of Law. Applicants for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be twenty years of age, and must have completed an academic course equivalent to that of the Freshman and Sophomore years in the College.

MOOT COURT.

The Moot Court is an important factor in legal educational methods; it familiarizes the student with the practical side of law. It is the purpose of the University Court to acquaint the student with the legal details so necessary to be acquired, yet so difficult of access. Regular sessions are held every Saturday night, and every student in the Law School has frequent opportunities for practice. The work is thorough and is carried on from the inception of the suit to the final judgment in the Appellate Court.

Court of Appeals.

Judge, Professor MacRae.

Superior Court.

Judge, Associate Professor Ruffin.
Solicitor, F. M. Wooten.
Clerk, Nathan Lunsford.
Sheriff, R. L. Godwin.

EXPENSES PER TERM.

Tuition fee	$37.50
Registration and Incidental fees	10.00
Tuition fee for Elementary Course	5.00

Where full tuition, $37.50, is paid, students may also take the Elementary Course if it is desired.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION.

Candidates for admission into the Law School should present themselves on the same days and at the same hours with candidates for admission into the College, either in September or in January. Candidates for admission and students already members of the school are expected to register according to the regulations on page 63. The session of the Law School is of the same length as the College year. The members of the Law School enjoy all the privileges extended to other students in the University.

THE SUMMER SCHOOL.

JUNE, JULY, AUGUST, 1903.

The Summer Law School is maintained for the purpose of providing:—

1st. A course for those who wish to begin the study of law—Junior Class.

2nd. A thorough review of the course prescribed by the Supreme Court for applicants for license at the September Term.

3rd. An opportunity for members of the bar who desire to review any branch of the Law.

SESSION.

The Summer Term begins June 10th and ends the last Friday in August. These dates are adapted to the change in the time for the fall term of the Supreme Court.

LECTURES AND RECITATIONS.

Lectures and recitations are held daily for each Class continuing one hour and a half in each case. Special lectures will also be delivered by prominent lawyers during the term.

MODE OF INSTRUCTION.

The work is conducted by means of text-books, lectures, leading cases, quizzes and the Moot Court. There are two classes, as follows:

Junior Class.

Associate Professor Ruffin.

Ewell's Essentials of the Law, which includes Domestic Relations, Real Property Law, Personal Property Law, Criminal Law and the Law of Contracts and Torts. The other text-books used will be Manning's Commentaries on 1st Blackstone; 2nd Blackstone and Williams on Real Property, 3rd Blackstone and Code Pleading, 4th Blackstone and Criminal Law, Clark on Contracts, Bigelow on Torts.

Senior Class.

Professor MacRae.

1st Greenleaf on Evidence, with the Code Chapter on Evidence. Bispham's Equity. Clark on Corporations. Schouler on Executors, with the Code Chapters on Widows, Wills and Testaments. First Volume of the North Carolina Code, with Clark's Code of Civil Procedure. The Constitutions of the United States and of North Carolina. Sharswood's Legal Ethics. Third Blackstone and Code Pleading.

EXAMINATIONS.

No entrance examination is required, but each student must satisfy the Faculty that he has sufficient general training to enable him to take the course with profit to himself. Examinations are required as each subject is completed, and at the end of the term certificates are issued to those who have passed with credit all the examinations.

FEES AND EXPENSES.

The tuition for the Junior Class is $30; for the Senior Class, $30; for both, $50. Any student who has attended the regular session for two terms and paid his fees in cash may take the full summer course for $30.

Any licensed attorney desiring to review the course will be permitted to do so for $30. The registration fee is $3. There are no scholarships in this department. Board in the village with room will cost from $10 to $20 per month; without room, from $8 to $15.

For further information address, President F. P. Venable, Hon. Jas. C. MacRae, Dean, University Law School, or Dr. Thos. Ruffin, Associate Professor of Law, Chapel Hill, N. C.
